4. The position of Chair of a working group is applied for by a qualifying individual and appointed by the Executive Bureau at the beginning of the relevant Working Year. The Executive Bureau may appoint up to three (3) individuals to the position of chair of each working group, in order to distribute the workload and maximise attendance. In such a case, all co-chairs men have the full range of obligations of a single Working Group Chairman.
5. The Chair of the Working group is responsible for drafting a working program for the upcoming year and presenting it to the Council at the first Council Meeting of the relevant Working Year.
6. The Chair of the Working group needs to make a succinct yet complete report of the discussion

 - c) Chairs of the Working Group have the right to vote. In case a Chair of the Working Group is also the only representative of the member organisation in the Working Group session, the representative has the right to cast two votes. For the purpose of clarification, the two votes are given due to the double status of the person involved as Chair of the Working Group and as only representative of the member organisation in the Working Group.
 - d) Members of the Executive Bureau and the Secretariat are only allowed to participate in the Working Group session if there is no Bureau Meeting taking place simultaneously. If any Bureau or Secretariat member takes part in the official Working Group session, they can only vote if they are the only representative of the member organisation in that particular Working Group session.

- e) A motion is passed in the Working Group by a simple majority of the votes. This is the case when the motion receives more votes in favour than votes against.
